

JUROR/JUDGE

WES & RACHELLE SIEGRIST

Wes and Rachelle Siegrist have been referred to as “World Ambassadors for Miniature Art” and hailed as two of the finest living practitioners of the art form. They currently have an unprecedented, history-making touring exhibition of their miniature paintings traveling to museums around the United States that encompasses twenty-five venues and counting. Wes often lectures on the topic of miniature art and has published several books on the Siegrists’ work in miniature as well as miniature art in general. Modern Masters of Miniature Art in America by Wes has been called a miniaturist’s bible and is a comprehensive overview of the history and modern scope of miniature art. The Siegrists hold signature memberships with the Miniature Artists of America (MAA) and the Society of Animal Artists (SAA). They reside in Townsend, Tennessee beside the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. For further information about the artists: www.artofwildlife.com

SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

Please pack art in a sturdy corrugated box, allowing for plenty of room for packing material (Styrofoam pellets, balled-up newspaper, etc.) Never use a box that is exactly the size of the art. It is better to have a box too large than too small. Art is returned in this same box that it arrives in.

In box with art place your entry fees; return postage fees (no postage stamps accepted & if you include your return label for UPS make sure it is filled out correctly, (no prepaid FEDEX return labels accepted), inventory of art and any extra return instructions. If you are a new artist, please include biography, also legible email address, we will use email to confirm arrival of art and assign inventory numbers whenever possible.

FOREIGN ENTRIES

MUST INCLUDE required entry fees plus paid return postage and handling of $35.00 USD. In the event artwork is sold, a refund check for the shipping fees will be issued. Payment in the form of PayPal, credit card or international money order is the preferred payment methods.

Please include instructions for duty free returns of your artwork, unless you want it shipped to an alternative USA address.
